GATHERING TOGETHER AS A COMMUNITY

Something to ponder as you prepare for worship:

The Season after Epiphany began with the Magi following the light of the star (Matt. 2) and ends with the bright lights of Jesus' Transfiguration (Matt. 17). Epiphany means "showing forth," and it is during this season when we are called to look at how God is made known to us in Jesus Christ and how God calls us as individuals and the church to follow him. In his poem prayer, "Epiphany," biblical scholar Walter Brueggemann wrote the following: "We are—we could be—people of your light. So we pray for the light of your glorious presence as we wait for your appearing." May it be so.

*Call to Worship

Elder Kennedy

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

We gather in the presence of God.

Let us open our hearts and minds in worship.

*Prayer of the Day

Elder Kennedy

Author of all creation, Maker of all that is, by your hands the seasons turn and the days grow longer. As sunlight expands irresistibly into dark corners, shed your light into our hearts, and into our world. Renew our spirits, that we may remember your promises, respond to your call, and reflect your goodness.

Renew your Church, Holy Spirit, that we may worship and serve with the joy of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

*Hymn of Praise #12 "Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise"

*Call to Confession

Elder Kennedy

*Prayer of Confession (unison)

Almighty God, we confess that we have not been faithful to you in our thoughts and actions. We have been selfish in our desires and quarrelsome in our relationships. We have allowed fear to divide us from those who seem different, and let distrust separate us from our brothers and sisters. Shine your light into our darkened hearts.

Save us from our divisive ways. By your loving mercy, help us to live in your light and abide in your ways for the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

(silent confession)

Prayers of the People & The Lord’s Prayer

Rev. Eye

...Gracious God, receive all our prayers, spoken and unspoken, as together we pray as Jesus taught his disciples to pray, saying, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
